

Leadership training

for self-advocates and for family members

Self-advocates and family members at the leadership training in Brussels in November 2016.

Meeting members of the European Parliament in the year 2016.

Inclusion Europe is organising a 3-day training in Brussels.

The training will bring together self-advocates and family members from across Europe.

We invite you to join the event.

You will learn how to be a self-advocate at European level.

You will learn about violence against women with intellectual disabilities.

You will learn how to advocate for more protection from violence.

You will meet self-advocates, family members and people working at the European Union.
